

Dear Valued Customer,

In line with government guidelines, as of today, Tuesday 24th March, we have temporarily closed for business.

In these unprecedented times the welfare of our staff is paramount. Some of us are working remotely on business critical issues.

Please continue to check our website for further updates.

We send you and your loved ones our best wishes and we look forward to the reopening in the near future.

Signing off for now – Libra Drinks.